MOAZAM ATTIQ

A skilled and adaptable web developer with expertise in full-stack development, Data Structures and Algorithms (DSA), database management, and software documentation. Proficient in project management and dedicated to delivering efficient and innovative solutions. Seeking an opportunity in a forward-thinking organization to apply my technical skills and strategic mindset to create meaningful impact.

- Java, Java OOP, C, PHP, JavaScript, Python, Flutter.
- HTML, CSS, CSS Frameworks, PHP.
- MySQL, phpMyAdmin.
- SDLC, Software Documentation, Project Management.

- Adobe Premiere Pro, Lightroom, Figma.
- Social Media Marketing, Content Creation, Social Media Management.
- MS Word, PowerPoint, Advanced Excel, MS Visio.
- Photography, Cinematography, Graphic Designing.

- Provide expert assistance in projects and assignments related to web development, database management, DSA, and software documentation, delivering high-quality results tailored to client needs.
- Offer services for downloading, installing, and configuring software tools essential for project completion, ensuring seamless setup and functionality for clients.
- Cultivate strong client relationships by delivering reliable solutions and maintaining a professional, results-driven approach.

- Developed a web-based ticket booking platform using HTML, Tailwind CSS, PHP, and MySQL.
- Built secure back-end systems and user-friendly front-end interfaces for seamless transactions.

- Authored comprehensive documentation for two university projects: Railway Reservation System and Banking Application, detailing technical specifications, system workflows, and user guidelines.

- Created a Java-based back-end system for managing vehicle repair operations, focusing on database integration and functionality.

- Designed a visually appealing and user-friendly interface for a banking app using Figma, aligning with modern UI/UX standards.

- Built a terminal-based banking application in Java, featuring account management, transaction tracking, and secure balance inquiries.

- Developed interactive Java-based games with unique mechanics, including one where losing results in automatic window closure, showcasing creativity and expertise in event-driven programming.

|

August 2026

Key Coursework: Object-Oriented Programming, Data Structures and Algorithms, Database systems, Software Design and Architecture, Human Computer Interaction.

Used to take pictures in personal family & friend's events, also an interest in automobiles.

Worked alongside a team of ABAP developers at , learning and sharing knowledge, which fostered a collaborative environment and promoted continuous learning. Guided peers in different projects improving their coding practices, enhancing team productivity and project quality.

Led the development of different courses' Projects, overseeing the planning, execution, and delivery of the project. Ensured smooth collaboration between team members to meet deadlines and deliver high-quality results.

Fostered a positive team culture, encouraging innovation and facilitating problem-solving during complex projects.

Available upon request.